

Police Insignia Collectors Association

of Australia Inc.

Australia's premier insignia collecting Association! P.I.C.A.A. was established by four serving police officers from NSW in 1984 since then it has grown to be Australian premier insignia collecting association catering for Police, Emergency Services and Military interests. It is a not for profit association. Approximately 80% of the members are serving or retired Police or Emergency Service Officers (Prison / Fire Brigades / Ambulance). The remainder consist of various Law Enforcement Agency personnel and civilians. Past patrons of the Police Insignia Collectors Association of Australia include two State Governors and an Assistant Commissioner of Police.
